Admissions Policy

The CCI programs are for adults who possess:

- The desire to learn and the willingness to grow
- Motivation to persevere and succeed
- Genuine interest in making a difference by using coaching
- While not required, advanced education, experience in people-related fields, and personal maturity will enhance the participant's ability to succeed

Confidentiality

CCI and its coaches/trainers recognize that the participants may have future plans, business affairs, customer lists, financial information, job information, goals, personal information, and other private information. CCI trainers will not at any time, either directly or indirectly, voluntarily use any information for their own benefit, or disclosure, or communicate this information to a third party. The participant undertakes and commits not to use or disclose any information that has been shared or disclosed during any of CCI's courses.

Participant conduct and responsibilities

The participant has been made aware that the programs offered by CCI are in no way to be construed as psychotherapy, psychological counseling, or any type of therapy. The Academy blends strong support for participant learning and success with the participant's commitment to learning. Participant conduct must demonstrate this commitment & be visible in the form of full class attendance & for being open to learning. Participants are expected to reinforce the learning nature of the environment and manage themselves accordingly. Participants who are absent for a half day or more from one module will be required to repeat the module or make up for it in an agreed upon way. In case of the latter CCI is entitled to charge for the extra hours of service the participant may require from the trainer or his representatives. CCI does not support inappropriate or disruptive behavior that compromises the learning environment. If the behavior compromises the safety or personal rights of another individual, the participant may be subject to remedial action, up to and including expulsion from the course or program.

Medical Conditions

We take our responsibility and your safety serious. If you have are currently diagnose with a mental illness (e.g., bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, multiple personality disorder), a history of mental illness or emotional instability, or a history of drugs or alcohol abuse, we recommend you discuss the matter with the CCI Director of Training before participating in any CCI event. The participant agrees that s/he does not take psycho-pharmacological drugs or illegal drugs and that s/he does not currently undergo psychotherapeutic treatment. If so, s/he is to inform any CCI authority immediately.

Quality

The contentment and the learning results of our participants are our highest values. We are committed to offer our participants only optimal contents. It is our philosophy to do whatever it takes so that the participant reaches her/his goal in the most effective & comfortable way.

Copyright and intellectual property

The participant acknowledges that 3rd Millennium INC is the owner of:

- all rights to the intellectual property which include designs, know how, copyright, goodwill and trademarks whether existing now or in the future;
- all documentation, websites, the training manuals, workbooks and hand-outs, and any other copyrighted material that is used by CCI Creative Consciousness International.

The participant undertakes and commits not to use or reproduce any of the material without written permission of CCI on behalf of 3rd Millennium INC. Should a participant use any of the intellectual property in verbal proposals or presentations; oral acknowledgment of 3rd Millennium INC and Marc Steinberg as the owner and originators of the material is required.

Liability

The participant is fully responsible for her/himself and her/his actions within and outside of CCI's course programs. She/he is liable for possible damages. CCI and its trainers are released from any liability claims, except if these are based on intentional harmful behavior of the trainer.

Our coaching language

Consciousness Coaching® uses a certain coaching language, which is designed to reinforce the impact of the coaching. This language uses common words but rearranges the grammar in such a way that the wording matches the functioning of consciousness. Therefore the impact of the conversation with a Consciousness Coach® is comparatively significantly effective.

Travel

The participant is solely responsible for travel arrangements, flight fares, hotel reservations etc. and the costs thereof.

Tuitions and payments

All tuitions are displayed on the CCI website or the local Creative Consciousness websites. Payment in full is due within seven (7) days of receipt of invoice. Without timely payment, the participant forfeits the right of a confirmed space.

Money Back Guarantee

CCI will give any participant and instant 100% refund of the full tuition paid (no questions asked) if the following conditions are met: 1) the participant has fully participated in the Master 1 training event and all of its sessions, and 2) the claim is made in writing (email) within 24 hours after the closure of the training event (which is usually closing on a Sunday at 6pm).

Reservations

if the participant is unable to submit full payment within 7 days of the invoice date, a deposit of 10% of the module's cost is required to reserve a space in the program.

Cancellations

The participant will be charged an administrative fee of 3% of the total tuition fee if s/he cancels registration. Cancellations are only accepted in writing. If the cancellation is received less than 4 weeks prior the start of the program, CCI shall have the right to charge 20% of the tuition, less than 7 days before the start of the program 50%, and less than 3 days before the start of the program 100%, except if the participant provides a replacement participant to assume enrolment. The participant agrees to return any materials received are at the participant's expense. A full refund of all registration fees and tuition paid is granted if CCI does not accept the participant.

Facilitation cancellation and/or rescheduling

CCI reserves the right to cancel or reschedule its trainings and/or events, although it will not be done without critical reason. The participant will be informed in time and the registration will be transferred free of charge to the next available training event.

Reviewing

The participant is entitled to review any module from which s/he graduated. This option is subject to availability of seats. The participant will be responsible for paying an fee to cover meals and refreshments. Certain exercises may not be attended if the number of participants exceeds the maximum number assigned to the exercise. Assisting is another form of reviewing and available upon request. Please consult your local CCI representative for more information.
